near table's
edge

sun
centred perfectly
in open
window

TRACES

Why
in the afternoon

is the same thought coloured so

differently?

Fence posts leaning as if in a strong wind

MID-MORNING

You need to think do you think the light falling on the floor through the window through the trees the branches the leaves is part of the day around you is something you can see and or see by

CYCLE

The trees grow up
and down

the sky, holding

clouds burn
oneiric lines

in the summer
the winter

the road

still walking

SURFACE

The still dark water the surface of finally through rushes pushing or said like reeds or things never thought of thinking saying
from the darkness
that speak softly
whose are the voices
I think after all

Clouds
edges

just talking

leaves answer answer leaves
