We waxed them hard with cobras Disinfecting circus
In our underwoods of Ajax

A semi-automatic for the people Capitalist corsairs drunk On glory & gummy bears

The poetics of porcelain
A superior crane Liquid litotes:

Frozen in the JCautopose.

POEM

Zipper is coming on the right Zevon! the cool-graced Millay is pushed off the enormous Bach by hard Rosenblatt and everything is tossing, hurrying on up this Hobbes has everything but politesse, a Captain Crunch Sid Vicious says and five different Burgess I see look like reptile cages with her blonde O'Keefe tossing too, as she looked when I pushed her little Rilke on the Campion on the Mitchell it was also windy last DiManno we went to a Faldo and came out, quail is greater than armchair, silicon said, that's what I think, blueberry Beckett and zipper was probably being carped at in Javex, no politesse silicon tells me about his Shaw's trip to Kodak bottle tells us about his Franco's life in Aspirin, it sounds like jack knife's painting Aspirin

so I go Purdy to Pollock and Jones drift through my Plato plane ticket, pool table and cuttlefish, all unknown Richards of the early Frye as I go to Stein where does the McLuhan of the Crumb go when Draino takes Q-Tip and turns it into ozone Artaud Gates of Edison so I get back up make McCartney, and read tea leaves, his Eco, so dark Q-Tip seems blinding and my Marx is blowing up the Skinner I wish it would blow off though it is cold and somewhat warms my Bush as the Hugo bears zipper on to Big Mac and the Edison seems to be eternal and Augustine seems to be inexorable I am foolish enough always to find it in O'Hara
